

SC Johnson Administration Building

Frank Lloyd Wright

The SC Johnson Administration Building designed by Frank Lloyd Wright is celebrated as one of the top 25 buildings of the 20th century. From its 43 miles of Pyrex glass tubing to the dendriform columns soaring in the Great Workroom, it is truly a unique work of art.

During our most in-depth tour offering, you'll explore the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Administration Building as well as the award-winning Foster + Partners-designed Fortaleza Hall with the Spirit of Carnaúba airplane soaring at its heart and current exhibit, Usonia: Frank Lloyd Wright's Vision of the American Home. (The Laurent House, the Frank Lloyd Wright here in Rockford, is a Unisonian home.). In addition, see Sam Johnson's acclaimed film Carnaúba: A Son's Memoir, with its enduring family message, and enjoy the Academy Award-winning documentary To Be Alive! Plus, stop at The Lily Pad gift shop.

Date: Friday March 7, 2014

Where: We will leave the Beloit McDonalds on Hwy43 & I-90 around 10:30-10:40.

Time: 12:15 - approx 3:30

Restrictions: stairs are involved.

Cost: Free

Sign up by: March 6th, 2014—bring a friend!